More than polite clapping. A standing ovation.

Infinite potential on a finite budget.

Applaud offers a perfect balance between custom originality and cost-effective practicality. Flexible enough to rearrange or update its content. Handsome materials that fit your brand. Inventive mounting options. Precise construction. Pre-engineered to be ready for production fast.

Members. Donors. Honorees. There are people who touch your organization whom you can never thank enough. And names you never want to forget. They're part of your story. Show them what their contributions mean with a striking display that reflects your brand – and their stature.

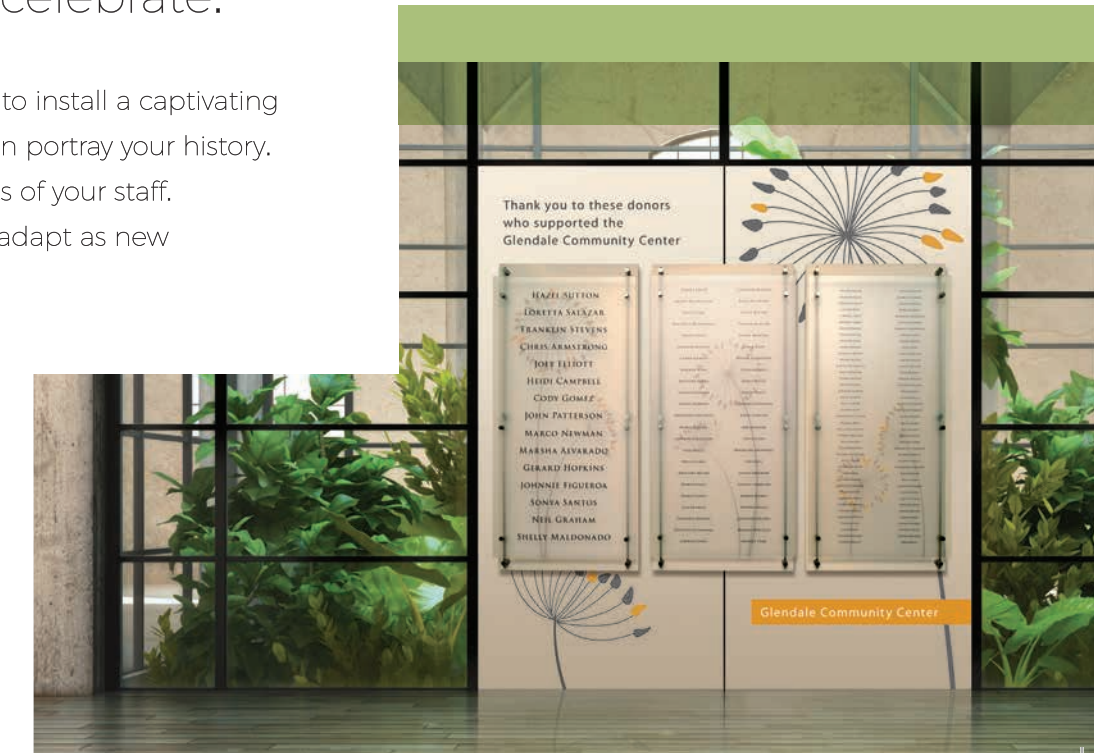

Applaud – exclusively from Takeform – is a recognition system that offers you advantages right now. And for years to come.

For every cause to celebrate.

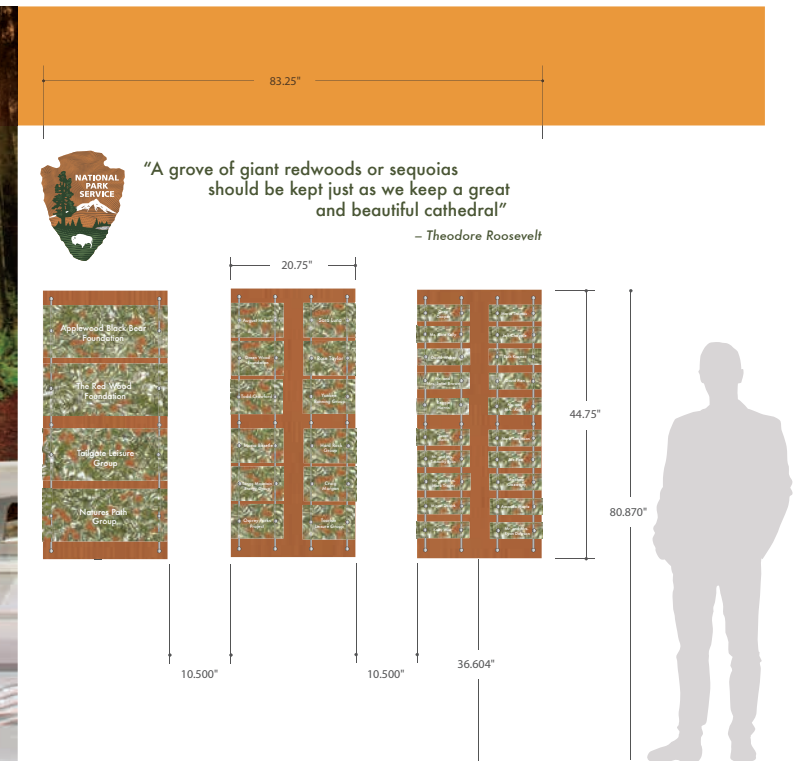

Saying "thanks" is just one reason to install a captivating display in your space. Applaud can portray your history. Commemorate the achievements of your staff. Showcase award recipients. And adapt as new chapters in your story unfold.

We're here to make the process applause-worthy, too.

Our team is prepared to work closely with you from the earliest consultation through design, fabrication, installation, and updates. We take full ownership of every project — as a committed extension of your own organization.

See your vision before production begins.

Once you've talked to us about your needs for a display, our designers will promptly develop a realistic digital rendering you can share with your team — or even would-be donors or honorees.
